Sponsored by the Office of Communications and Marketing

Contact: communications-office@trincoll.edu

Trinity College is a dynamic academic community which promotes its student experience and mission through authentic storytelling, strategic communications, marketing efforts, and digital media. For that effort, there may be occasions when the Office of Communications and Marketing works to inform the public about students' activities, awards, accomplishments, and honors. Information about you and/or photographs of you may be used in College publications, social media, or websites, or issued to media in Connecticut, your hometown, and to national media outlets.

(Please note: Students participating in intercollegiate athletics will be asked to complete a separate form as well as this one.)

Photography Notice

By willingly participating in photography or videography managed or produced by the Office of Communications and Marketing, you authorize Trinity College to photograph, film, tape, and/or interview you, and you agree that Trinity College may use any material and/or quotes, films or negatives, films or tapes (audio or visual), or digital images as desired. You also indicate that you understand that such material may be used for publication, College websites, social media, podcasting, and/or broadcast purposes. You relieve and hereby agree to hold harmless Trinity College and its agents and employees from any and all liability arising out of the photography, filming, taping, and/or interviewing. You understand that these activities will be carried out with your consent, and you assume full responsibility for granting that consent.

You may opt out or revoke consent by writing to the Office of Communications and Marketing at communications-office@trincoll.edu. Use the subject line "Photography Opt-Out."

During public events, the College will make a good-faith effort to provide notice when photography or videography is being captured at the event.

Publicity Notice

The Office of Communications and Marketing occasionally distributes student, faculty, and staff news to local newspapers and other media based on your home ZIP code. Media may include, but are not limited to, newspapers, magazines, alumni/ae bulletins, radio, and television stations.

You may opt out by writing to the Office of Communications and Marketing at communications-office@trincoll.edu. Use the subject line "Publicity Opt-Out."
